

SALMON BANK MAY AGAIN OPEN DOORS

State Bank Examiner Cook Says Outlook Is Hopeful if Depositors Are Paid in Full.

CITIZENS SHOW CONFIDENCE.

Expected run on Other Institution at Clinton Falls to Develop Disposition of Bank Caused Trouble.

REPEATED SPECIAL.

Clinton, Mo., June 21.—That the Salmon & Salmon Bank of this city, which closed its doors temporarily this morning, will have its confidence in full and open for business in a few days, is the belief of Bank Examiner Cook, who took charge of the institution this afternoon.

Although the bank, which is one of the oldest in this section of the state and the first to be established in Henry County, failed this morning to open its doors for business, there was no uneasiness among the citizens and depositors.

CITIZENS ARE CONFIDENT.

The citizens' bank, the other financial institution of Clinton, prepared for a run when the news spread that the Salmon & Salmon Bank had closed its doors. However, there was no run on the Citizens Bank and at the close of business this afternoon the deposits made during the day were about the same as the withdrawals.

In a statement given out this afternoon State Bank Examiner Cook said: "I feel safe in saying that if Salmon & Salmon have sufficient property to pay depositors in full, arrangements can be made for the bank to reopen soon, and most of the strong financial standing have indicated their willingness to take hold of the matter."

REPEATED SPECIAL.

As soon as the temporary closing of the bank was announced, Mayor Harvey W. Salmon and Mayor George W. Salmon, owners of the institution, covered the whole of their real and personal property to back Examiner Cook for the benefit of the institution.

The last statement of the bank, made on May 21 of this year, showed the following: Assets, $100,000; deposits, $100,000; capital, $100,000; surplus, $100,000; undivided profits, $100,000; other assets, $100,000; total, $100,000.

The liabilities were as follows: Capital, $100,000; deposits, $100,000; undivided profits, $100,000; other assets, $100,000; total, $100,000.

It is said that the trouble which caused the closing of the institution came when a St. Louis bank yesterday declined to honor a draft presented by one of the creditors of the Salmon bank.

The failure of a concern with which the bank was closely allied two years ago is also said to be partially responsible for the closing.

The bank was a partnership between Mayor George W. Salmon and Mayor Harvey W. Salmon. It was organized in 1895 and was intimately connected with the development of Southwest Missouri for forty years.

Mayor Salmon is one of the best known men in the state. He was State Treasurer from 1870 to 1871 and for years has been a factor in Democratic politics of Missouri.

Immediately after the bank closed its doors this morning word was sent to the State Bank Examiner Cook, who with State Bank Examiner Cook was in charge of the bank and an examination began.

No Degrees in St. L. U. Undergraduate Department but Six Are Conferred in Postgraduate Department.

For the first time in many years, since its founding, the annual commencement exercises of the College of St. Louis University were held last night without any candidates for the degree of A. B. This was owing to the fact that a year has been added to the undergraduate course, and the only degrees conferred were on candidates in the postgraduate department.

The college exercises in the Odeon last night closed the commencement-day exercises of St. Louis University. The baccalaureate sermon and the distribution of the degrees in the postgraduate department were held last night.

COSSACKS KILL EIGHTEEN AND WOUND 100 AT LODZ

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 20.—Eighteen persons were killed and 100 wounded to-night by volleys fired by Dragoons and Cossacks on a procession of 50,000 workmen, which had been organized as a demonstration against the Government.

The demonstration had been quietly arranged. At 8 o'clock the workmen, 50,000 strong, with thirty red flags, marched through Piotrkowska street, shouting "Down with despotism!" They gathered in the old market place, where speeches were made by socialists.

Up to this point the police had not interfered. At 9 o'clock the procession re-formed and was marching up Glowna street when suddenly the Cossacks and Dragoons rushed from the side streets and fired a number of volleys.

The crowd fled panic-stricken, leaving eighteen killed and 100 wounded.

JUDGE ZACHRITZ MAY LOSE LEFT EYE AS RESULT OF DIVORCE SUIT ASSAULT

Attorney for Mrs. Anna Dunbar Creveling Is Attacked by Clem Creveling, Father of Girl Whose Name Was Introduced in Testimony, in Court—Lawyer Later Appears in Court and Asks That Objectionable Matter Be Stricken Out—Creveling Says He Asked That This Be Done and Was Enraged at Refusal.

Former Judge William Zachritz was assaulted in the courtroom yesterday in a dispute over the divorce suit of Mrs. Anna Dunbar Creveling and her husband, Samuel Creveling, and sustained injuries which may result in the loss of his left eye.

The trouble grew out of the trial of the divorce suit of Anna Dunbar Creveling, daughter of Police Captain Peter Joyce, against William C. Creveling, Clem Creveling's son.

The case has been on trial in Division No. 5 of the Circuit Court at intervals during the last two weeks and was to have come up yesterday at 3:30 a. m.

At the hearing on last Thursday, Judge Zachritz, who represents Mrs. Creveling, asked her husband, in cross-examination, if on an occasion when he and his wife were visiting his mother in the county jail, he did not bring several women there in a carriage, among whom was Edward Kelleher, and if his wife did not object to meeting them, saying that they were her friends.

Creveling answered in the negative. Judge Zachritz said that the case was being tried, and that he was a witness. He said that he was a witness.
